

Principles of Winemaking Course

Eligibility for the programme

- This programme is open to hospitality professionals who identify as Black, Asian, and ethnic minority.
- You must be 18 years or older to apply to this course.
- All applicants must be UK citizens, nationals, or permanent residents.
- A minimum of two years of experience working in the hospitality industry is required.
- No prior experience is required, though a genuine interest in winemaking and the factors influencing the style and quality of wine is essential.
- Mobility requirements or adjustments must be disclosed during the application process. Though not a barrier to accessing this course, it will help us plan and accommodate.

Application process

Applications are open until Friday 3rd May 2024

- Applicants will be notified by Tuesday 7th May whether they have been invited to video interviews. Interviews will be conducted between Wednesday 8th May and Monday 13th May.
- Successful applicants will be chosen by the Be Inclusive Hospitality team.
- Successful applicants will be notified by Wednesday 15th May 2023 at the latest and they will be required to sign an acceptance letter.
- The course will take place from Monday, 3rd June, until Friday, 7th June.

Further considerations

- This is not a position of employment, and the candidate will not be a Be Inclusive Hospitality employee.
- Be Inclusive Hospitality will cover the course cost, travel, and student accommodation (including meals).
- This accommodation, course and food costs will be paid directly to the course provider.

- Be Inclusive Hospitality is responsible for booking travel.
- The location of the college is Plumpton College, Ditchling Road, Lewes, BN7 3AE.
- Applicants should check that they are available on the course dates before applying.
- Courses are non-transferrable and cannot be exchanged for monetary value, voucher credit or transferred to another date.
- Courses must be taken by the applicant and cannot be gifted to another individual.
- Be Inclusive Hospitality, and Plumpton College reserve the right to withdraw places on the programme with a sufficient reason (such as absenteeism from the committed dates) and offer them to someone else where appropriate.

In return, the candidate will be expected to:

- Respect confidential information about Be Inclusive Hospitality or Plumpton College that it receives through the course and keep it confidential.
- Not bring Be Inclusive Hospitality or Plumpton College into disrepute.
- Commit to participating in photographs and content creation for Be Inclusive Hospitality's social platforms and websites.
- While it is not mandatory, we will ask all successful applicants if they would be willing to participate in publicity about the course, which may include mentioning your name and using your photograph.
- Commit to completing a feedback survey and a written or video testimonial at the end of the programme.